

Benefit & Different

When the same system is used for treatment in speech or psychological therapy, then cards are inserted as per the prescription of the therapist and listen as frequently as per the instruction of the therapist.

The major benefit and uniqueness of this invention is

- The gadget can be used very easily by the child without training proper way of studying.
- The gadget has such a facility that hearing again and again makes it easy memories.
- The gadget doesn't need a mobile, the internet, a television etc.
- Gadget does not damage the child's eyes.
- Mothers can take a self-exam of the child at home.
- Can be used anywhere and anytime.
- This product uses 5-volt electricity to save electricity.
- Very light wet devices
- Usable for different languages
- This device of the present invention provides a facility for repeat hearing, which makes easy memories and repeat use provides fast treatment.
- Its device is a very low-price sales in the market.
- Use this device in other fields, for example, speech therapy

How is this device different from others?

- This is not a mobile app, so there is no need for a mobile. Apart from this, there is no need for the internet or TV.
- The patent of this device has been published on 18/02/2022.
- It is a cheap medium. Therefore, it is also useful for the general class.
- No special training is required.

- The child will get education through this technology along with school activities for education.
- There is education on the mobile phone, but there is no physical activity in it.
- This step is necessary for quick memorization: Looking = Activity card can be seen on this device. \ Understanding explains its information as soon as the card is inserted into the device. \ Knowing can also recognize speech through the display. \ Hearing can also be heard through the output of the speaker \ Speaking All these things are included in this device along with practical.
- As soon as the card is inserted, the device displays the information about the card. But the difference is that no QR code, Barcode or Magnetic Stripe Reader is used to identify the card information. This device reads data with a new idea.